Welcome to
2006 UCI BMX Pacific – Oceania Ranking Series – Taiyuan, China

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to "2006 UCI BMX Pacific – Oceania Ranking Series – Taiyuan, China" which will take place in Taiyuan city, on October 1st, 2006

General information

Taiyuan is located in Fenhe River Valley, about hundred and thirty kilometres(530km)at the southwest in Taiyuan and Beijing all belongs to temperate monsoon climate, the inviting whether with neither extreme cold in winter nor unbearable hot days in summer. The city has an area of six thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight square kilometres (6988sq.km).

"Yifen" Bridge

The BMX track in Taiyuan is one of the best BMX tracks in Asia. It is also where the Chinese BMX Training Center is based. The track is approximately 380 metres long and with a width of four to six metres. The gate system is the product of the accredited UCI BMX gate providers. It can hold up to 8 riders. The track consists of three turns and seven to eight obstacles.
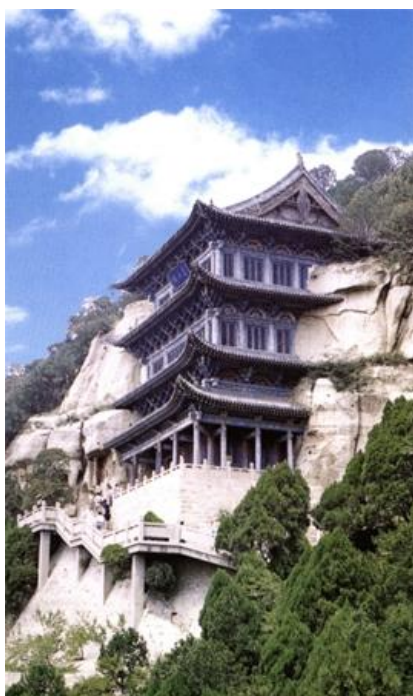

The race is designed according to UCI rules.

BMX Field

Racing

Travel information

Taiyuan is an ancient city with two thousand and five hundred years(2500yrs)of history; as the initiating place for many dynasties in Chinese history, it has a famous title of" the City of Dragon". Its long history and beautiful landscape had resulted in rich cultural heritage. There are more than five hundred historical heritage spots, five are the designated as the key heritage protection by the nation, and seventeen are designated as the key heritage protection by the province. Just name a few, Jinci Park is largest royal garden in China, Longshan Grottoes is also the largest grottoes of Daoism in China. Around Taiyuan are the scenic spots such as Pingyao Ancient City, which is listed as the World heritage of culture by UNESCO, yungang Grottoes and the Sacred Place of Buddhism-Wutai Mountain. Taiyuan is a well-known city of tourism, attracting millions of tourists from China and abroad.

"binhe"Park   "yingze"Park

"Longshan" Grottoes

Hotel and Board information

Taihang Grand Hotel, Taiyuan
Tel: +86 351 7589000
Fax: +86 351 7589918

Price: 75USD/person/day (including full food and board, 3 meals a daym, double room occupancy, daily transportation to and from the BMX track)

Awards

	Elite Men	Elite Women	Junior Men	Junior Women
1st place	1800	800	600	400
2nd place	1000	400	300	200
3rd place	600	250	150	100
4th place	400	200	120	80
5th place	300	150	105	70
6th place	250	120	90	60
7th place	200	100	75	50
8th place	180	90	90	60
	4730	2110	1530	1020

Total Prize Money is 9390 CHF

Event Schedule

Headquarter open & Training:	9:00 – 17:00 September 29th
Licence/jersey control	14:00 – 15:00 September 30th
Technical meeting	15:00 – 16:00 September 30th
Racing:	October 1st, as from 10:00a.m
Departure or travel in the city:	October 2nd, 2006

Optional Travel program arranged by the Organizing Committee (Reservation required)

Contact:

Chinese Cycling Association: admin@chncycling.com
Local Organizing Committee: congyi@126.com

Tell: +86 10 6886 2589
Fax: +86 10 6886 2596

Form for individual entries

National federation details

Name

Address

Telephone

Fax

E-mail

Confirmation of entries

Secretary's signature

Date

Use the following abbreviations and complete form in the following order of classes, in alphabetical order per class:

- EM   for Elite Men (19 years and over) ;
- EW   for Elite Women (19 years and over) ;
- JM   for Junior Men (17-18 years);
- JW   for Junior Women (17-18 years) ;

Family name	First name	Sex / M/F	Date of birth	Class /